

NOVEMBER 19.

ARTHUR ERWIN BROWN, D.Sc., Vice-President, in the Chair.

Thirty-eight persons present.

The death of Prof. Lucien M. Underwood, a Correspondent, November 16, 1907, was announced.

DR. BENJAMIN SHARP made a communication on Lobster Fisheries. (No abstract.)

J. W. Van Wijke, of Groningen; Otto zu Strassen, of Leipzig, and R. Bowdler Sharpe, of London, were elected Correspondents.

The following were ordered to be printed: